

Intergenerational Community Planning & Placemaking

July 10, 2024 10:00a.m. to 3:30p.m. in Lancaster, PA

1-Day Symposium with 5 CM Credits for AICP

A pre-conference session of the Mid-Atlantic Intergenerational Conference hosted by Pennsylvania State University July 10-12 2024

Planners, architects, and municipal staff, as well as community-based organizations that cut across disciplines focused on education, health and human services are invited to join:

The co-authors of the American Planning Association 2023 Report Intergenerational Community Planning

- Irv Katz, Senior Fellow, Generations United
- Matt Kaplan, Professor, Intergenerational Studies, Pennsylvania State University

Together with:

- Karen Shakira Kali, AICP, Policy Advisor, AARP Public Policy Institute.
- Douglas Smith, AICP, Chief Planner, City of Lancaster, PA.
- Christine Kennedy, MA Urban Planning, Principal, Age2Age Consulting
- David Rouse, FAICP, Urban+Regional Planning Consultant, co-author of The Comprehensive Plan: Sustainable, Resilient, and Equitable Communities for the 21st Century

Participants will learn about:

- Making the case for intergenerational community planning, funding and resources.
- Case study: "How the City of Lancaster, PA integrated the intergenerational lens within the Comprehensive Planning Process."
- Creating a network of educators, planners, providers and enthusiasts to develop a range/continuum of intergenerational community-building strategies.

The Registration fee for the 1-Day Symposium:

- $115 as a stand-alone for the 1-Day Symposium on July 10, 2024.
- $55 as an add-on to the full Mid-Atlantic Intergenerational Conference, July 10-12.
- Student discounts are noted on the registration page of the conference website.

Registration Includes:

- Complimentary digital copy of the American Planning Association 2023 Report Intergenerational Community Planning
- Lunch, Networking & Walking Tour of Lancaster City Intergenerational Places
- Certificate Maintenance Credits from AICP (5 CM)

Register for this preconference symposium on the 2024 Mid-Atlantic Intergenerational Conference website:

